

Plural Nouns

To make some nouns mean "more than one," add an s to the end.

A noun that names more than one is a plural noun.

Look at the picture then read the sentence and circle the correct answer.

- How many beach umbrellas do you see?
one beach umbrella two beach umbrellas three beach umbrellas
- How many balls do you see?
four balls five balls six balls
- How many trees do you see?
two trees three trees four trees
- Look for a seagull. How many seagulls do you see?
six seagulls seven seagulls eight seagulls
- Color the raft yellow? How many rafts do you see?
one raft two rafts three rafts
- Do you see the buckets? How many buckets do you see?
two bucket three buckets four buckets
- There is one sandcastle in this picture. Is sandcastle a plural noun?
yes no

Plural Nouns

To make some nouns mean "more than one," add an s to the end.

A noun that names more than one is a plural noun.

Look at the picture then read the sentence and circle the correct answer.

- How many beach umbrellas do you see?
 one beach umbrella two beach umbrellas three beach umbrellas
- How many balls do you see?
 four balls five balls six balls
- How many trees do you see?
 two trees three trees four trees
- Look for seagulls. How many seagulls do you see?
 six seagulls seven seagulls eight seagulls
- Color the raft yellow? How many rafts do you see?
one raft two rafts three rafts
- Do you see the buckets? How many buckets do you see?
two bucket three buckets four buckets
- There is one sandcastle in this picture. Is sandcastle a plural noun?
 yes no